

Have you ever planned a mother-daughter date? If not, we can help you out! Taking the time to spend intentional one-on-one with our daughters is a true treasure!

• STEP ONE: Find a fun local restaurant, a cozy cafe, or even a quiet place in your house where you can have a great conversation. TIP: If your daughter likes to dress up, pick a nice place and get dressed up together. If she is the causal type, throw on some jeans and find a place with a comfy corner booth.

• STEP TWO: Use these conversation starter questions taken from ThouArtExalted's Journal With Me Mother/Daughter Devotional and answer the questions. Tip: Cut out the cards and write the answers and the date on the back as a keepsake.

When do you feel the Bravest?

What is the scariest thing you have ever done?

What are the top 5 Blessings in your life?

What do you admire in other girls your age? Why?

Name one person in your life that makes you feel really special. What about them makes you feel this way?

If you could quit school and do anything you wanted all day, every day, what would it be?
